Seneschals Report

Greetings Unto the Populace of Caerthe,

The summer camping season is drawing to a close. Hopefully you all had a chance to enjoy the wonderful events that were held. There are, however, still great events being planned for the upcoming months. A particular highlight is Caerthe's hosting of the Known World Cooks and Bards set for April and hosted by Caerthe. Planning is in full swing for it. If you are interested in helping plan, please let myself or Mistress Catrin von Berlin know.

There are, however, a number of events to happen beforehand. The cantons, for example, are hard at working planning a lot of fun! I encourage you to support the cantons in their endeavors. Afterall, most of the kingdom looks at the barony as one single group. Therefore, when we support each other, we support ourselves.

Finally, there will soon be openings for the Caerthe Financial Committee. It is very important that these positions be filled. This is a great way to learn more about the barony with a minimal time commitment. Please send me a brief resume if you are interested.

I remain in service to Caerthe, the Outlands, and the Dream.

- THL Jethro Stille
Seneschal of Caerthe

Caerthen Directory

If you would like to be included in the 2012 Caerthen Directory, please send your contact information to carrie.hendershot@gmail.com before December 1st, 2011.

Thank you

Lady Constance Marchet

Letters Across Time

The Letters Across Time project was initiated by Lord Cillene mac Conghalaigh as a way for participants to explore the process of writing and delivering letters in a period manner as well as researching their personas. Participants are randomly matched with a "Quill Pal". The two correspondants then are asked to write letters to each other in a period manner and from the perspective of their personas.

For the purposes of this project, everyone is assumed to be able to read and write English (even if their persona would not). Furthermore, aspects regarding significant geographic or temporal discrepancies are ignored. Ways of handling the differences, however, are up to the letter writers. New Quill Pals are always welcome!

Upcoming Events

September 1-5 Warders of the Western Gate; 2-5 3 Stags Autumn Battle and Fair; 8-11 Long's Peak Scottish/Irish Festival Demo; 10-11 Crown Tourney

October 1 Ravens Fairs; 5-10 Great Western War; 8 Stags Con; 15 Peacock Reverie; 29 Danse Macabre

This is the September A.S. XLVI (2011) issue of THE FORTRESS, published by and for the members of the Barony of Caerthe, SCA, Inc. It is available from the Chronicler. It is not a corporate publication of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. and does not delineate SCA policies. THE FORTRESS may return any submission that mentions or implies anything illegal. THE FORTRESS may also return any item not in the spirit of the Current Middle Ages such as items not concerning the SCA and/or not of interest to SCA members. Submission deadline is the 15th of the previous month. Internal artwork by THL Wyndylyn is based on registered arms or badges for the various offices, unless otherwise noted. Meet the Officers

Name: Katelin de Irlande

AKA: Katherine Mattingley (in submission)

Title: Lady

Position: Hospitaller

When did you join the SCA?: AS XXXVIII in the Barony of Loch Salann, Kingdom of Artemisia. (2005)

How did you find the SCA?: My son's band teacher told me about the SCA and it sounded interesting, so I went to fighter practice and was hooked!

Why did you join the SCA?: I've always been a huge history geek, so when I found a place where I could 'live' history rather than just read about it, I was thrilled. It was also a great place for my son to grow up.

Who was the first peer you met?: Duke Sean Kirkpatrick Tarragon

Who were the landed nobility/vicar of Caerthe when you first came to the barony?: Baroness Mary

How did you choose your persona?: My heritage is German and Irish. Growing up, I learned a lot about the German, so I thought I'd research the other side.

What do you like most about the SCA?: I love meeting new people, especially people I never would have met if I was not in the SCA. I also love those rare 'ah-ha' moments that give you goose bumps (see below)

What was a memorable moment in the SCA?: One morning at Uprising in Artemisia, I awoke early and went out to take a walk. When I started out, it was still partly dark, the fog off the river and covered the entire encampment. As I returned to my camp, the sun was rising over the Tetons and the fog was lifting, and I could hear and see the other encampments waking up. It was a fantastic moment when I actually felt that I was on campaign during the Middle Ages.

What plans/goals do you have for your office?: First, I would like to start consistent Newcomer's gatherings/revels. At least once a quarter, I want to hold classes, workshops, or other programs geared toward meeting and helping the newest members of our group. While we currently have a free site in the Northern part of the Barony, I would like to move these around so that one group does not have to travel each time, or in the summer, perhaps we could meet in various parks. Second, I'd like to set up a demo team. Since educational demos usually take place during weekdays, it is difficult for most members of the populace to be able to participate. I would like to get a list of our skilled folks who are willing and able to be called to go teach children about the Middle Ages during the week. This list would also be most helpful in gearing all our demos to their specific audience.

What's a little known fact about you?: I was adopted when I was 17 days old.

Meet the Officers

Name: Ryan Butacan
AKA: Buta
Title: Lord
Position: Fencing Marshall
When did you join the SCA?: AS XXXIV
How did you find the SCA?: Scola Metallorum ran a demo at the Explore CSM activities day my freshman year.
Why did you join the SCA?: I enjoyed the training and potentials of fencing, and I turned out to be pretty good at it. The real 'lifetime pursuit' moment came at my first Estrella War. I was wandering around when I decided to stop at a campfire and get warm. A few dancers, a few drummers, not much of a crowd at first, but then a few more wandered in. Then a few more, and finally Rolling Thunder rolled into camp. 20, maybe 30 dancers in front of me, uncounted drums behind me, and a full moon ringed by a rainbow above. At that moment, I knew I wanted to do this for as long as I could.
Who was the first peer you met?: That I actually talked to? Duke Hoegaarden, though I think he was still Sir Hoegaarden at the time.
Who were the landed nobility/vicar of Caerthe when you first came to the barony?: Complicated. I took about four years between my first year and when I became active again. The first landed nobility I was aware of were Chronos and Catherine.
How did you choose your persona?: Still in the works. I've become somewhat enamored of the condottieri of the mid-15th century, and I working (slowly) on building a persona around the concept.
What do you like most about the SCA?: Marshall Activities. The fact that there is truly no end to what you can learn or how you can develop as a fighter, be it heavy or light, is extremely attractive. No matter how good you are, no matter how long you've fought, there is always something more to learn.
What was a memorable moment in the SCA?: The first royal I ever met was the then Prince of Trimaris. I had seen him earlier on the field laying waste before he wandered into camp. He told tales, both historic and those from his own experiences, sang, and displayed some of his leather work. To meet a single individual so skilled in so many different ways was a nice contrast to the intense specialization I see in modern life. Another experience that convinced me to join the SCA.
What plans/goals do you have for your office?: Primarily, I am working towards a better and more varied set of loaner gear that can accommodate as wide a range of potential fighters as possible. Not the loftiest goal imaginable, but anything that eases a person's inclusion in the SCA is a positive from my point of view. I'm also working towards finding a permanent site for our fighter practices/ guild meetings etc. A permanent, or semi-permanent, location would increase the potential scope of our activities, and improve the support structure the Barony offers for its citizens.
What's a little known fact about you?: That I'm willing to share? I was the first person from my high school to go to state in cross country and track all four years of my participation. Medal winner a couple of times too.
